

The Lexington claims of Holt's election are weakening, and one by one are seeking their holes.

SENATOR BEN. HARRISON will open the Republican campaign in Indiana, at Indianapolis, on the 23rd inst.

COLONEL J. R. ALLEN, of Lexington, has resigned the command of the Second Regiment, Kentucky State Guards.

A DESPATCH to the Louisville Times says that the returns received there show Riddell elected by from 100 to 300 majority.

The Lexington Press says that hundreds of negroes voted the Democratic ticket at the election in that city recently.

The election of Riddell affords the Louisville and Lexington papers a fine opportunity to do some scientific fishing.

The Knights of Honor have 117 lodges in Kentucky, and a total membership of 7,000. Kentucky Knights have paid $1,000,000 and drawn out death benefits amounting to $60,000 during the last six months.

A DESPATCH from Lexington to the Cincinnati Enquirer gives this Appellate district to Riddell by a majority of 290 votes. "Considering that Lexington is headquarters of the Holt men, and that nothing but unfair statements have been sent out from there since the election was held, this one may be taken as it is favorable to Riddell, as reliable.

The Sheriff of Ohio has united in an application to the Legislature to enact a law requiring all hangings to be done at the State penitentiary by an appointed executioner. They suggest that no reason exist why every man who accepts the position of Sheriff should be made responsible for judicial killing. The application will, it is thought, be favorably considered.

Who will assert that America is not faithfully obeying the command to increase and multiply population? Statistics show that for the school year of 1883-4, there were 12,413,822 children of school age in the United States, 103,829 of whom are enrolled in the public schools, 6,118,331 being in daily attendance. The last feature of the statement is not encouraging. That with all our efforts to secure an education for the rising generation, that nearly two-thirds of them do not attend school, is indicative that there are mistakes somewhere.

A SUPREME COURT Judge in Iowa trips up the Prohibitory law of that State by deciding that Justices of the Peace cannot try offenders, because the penalty exceeds their jurisdiction. A Justice can only hold offenders to answer at court. The obvious result is that all cases now on trial must be dismissed, and that about one in every hundred of future cases will turn upon the decision of the higher courts, which are already overburdened. The Iowa machinery for "railroading" rum-sellers must be tinkered again before it will work as has been expected.

Says the Cincinnati Enquirer: The charges of the Republican organs that Mr. Cleveland is not the friend of the workmen scarcely require a denial. The workmen of America keep pretty close track of the party leaders, and do not need to be told who among them are their friends and who are not. For the benefit of these newspaper editors who may not know that they are misrepresenting Mr. Cleveland's labor record we reproduce the subjoined from the Ulica Observer:

During the first year of his administration Governor Cleveland signed:

1. The bill establishing a Bureau of Labor Statistics.
2. The bill abolishing the manufacture of hats in State prisons and penitentiaries.
3. The Tenement House Cigar bill (afterward declared unconstitutional owing to defective in the title).
4. The bill submitting to popular vote the question of the abolition of contract labor in State prisons.
5. The Tenement House Cigar bill (amended to conform to constitutional decision).
6. The bill providing that whenever employers make assignment the wages of employees shall be paid before any other claim.
7. The bill prohibiting the Trustees of Houses of Refuge, correctional institutions, etc., from contracting the labor of the children contained therein.
8. The bill abolishing contract labor in State prisons, penitentiaries, etc.
9. The bill appointing a commission to inquire into the prison contract labor system and report a substitute therefor.

None of his predecessors made as good a record as Governor Cleveland on questions affecting the rights and protection of labor; and workmen know it.

SELLING HER BABY.

Desperate Resort of a Woman Whose Baby Stole in the Way of Work.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—About 300 weary immigrants were longing about Castle Garden yesterday morning, when a female voice suddenly was heard shouting: "How much an I bid?" The words were uttered in Russian, and of but understood her, but all were attracted by the sound, and a number of employees rushed into the rotunda from the dock, where they had been discussing epithets and vocatives. There they quickly discovered Josephine Stepiak, perched on one of the little stands, shaped like an auctioneer's box, from which the clerks usually announce that telegrams or letters are waiting for them. The woman held in her arms a one-year-old girl baby, which she intended to auction off to the highest bidder.

"How much an I bid," she again shrieked, holding the little child above her head.

"I'll give a chew of tobacco," responded Detective Groden in Russian.

"Tell her I'll give her fifty cents," said Chief Killy, whose knowledge of the Russian is meagre.

"Two dollars," yelled a Russian immigrant. "Two dollars!" yelled the woman, with the air of a successful auctioneer, and she gazed defiantly on the bidder. "Why, gentlemen, this baby is worth $200 at the lowest, and usually $500. Look at that child's face, look at her feet and hands—small and pretty. Hold her and how happy she is! Won't anybody say $300?"

"Oh shut up!" shouted Josephine. "Two dollars won't buy her little finger. Gentlemen, I'm surprised to see such an intelligent set of people. You should realize at the good points of this baby. Won't any gentleman say $100?"

There was no answer, and the woman again began to bring before the crowd the fine points of the baby, which was cowering with delight. Meanwhile Mrs. Groden had informed Dr. Schultz that an insane woman was in the rotunda. The doctor went inside and coaxed the woman down from the box just as she was informing the crowd that the baby could be purchased for $400, but not a cent less.

The woman is evidently insane. She is unmarried, and has been two weeks in the hospital. She has been wandering about the city, but her baby prevented her from procuring a situation, and she declares she wanted to sell it in order to get money to "raise the wind."

HORRIFIED YOUNG MAN.

His Licentious Brutality Rebuked by His Own Blood.

HACKENSACK, Aug. 13.—There was a startling occurrence in Hackensack a few nights since. So closely was the secret guarded that it was only by the mere chance that a reporter gained the meager facts given below. In the afternoon in question a young lady, the daughter of a highly respected member of the community, had occasion to visit some friends about a mile distant from her own home. At about 9 o'clock she started on her homeward journey. The young lady who is less than twenty years of age, and rather stout build, had often made the same journey unaccompanied, and in consequence had no fear. There was no moon, but stars in the evening it was obscured by clouds. When about midway between her friend's house and her own the young lady was suddenly seized from behind, and while one of her assailants (for there were two) pinned her arms, the other placed his hand over her mouth to prevent her from crying out. The terrified girl was unable to defend herself and was dragged into the bushes.

She had scarcely been thrown to the ground when the moon broke through the clouds and a terrible discovery was made.

"Oh, brother spare me!" the girl cried, and then fainted.

"My God!" ejaculated the terror-stricken young man, "it is my sister." Then he sank down beside her on the grass and cried like a child.

It was some time before the young lady returned to consciousness, and when she did a terrible story unfolded, and when she was able to stand, accompanied her to her home. The young lady, upon arriving home, recounted the particulars of the terrible outrage, through which she had passed, to her parents, but carefully, in order to shield her brother, concealed the facts of the horrible discovery she had made.

The above facts were gathered from an intimate friend of the neighbor, who accompanied the young lady home, and who also reached the house before the father and mother of the young man, and to recognize both of them although he knew nothing of what had occurred, and had been drawn thither by the screams of the girl.

Both of the young men have heretofore been highly respected, and it is thought they were under the influence of liquor at the time.

JOHN McGUIRE.

May go Up Higher for His Desire to Retire with Ease.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 13.—The people in Ohio County are much excited over the antics of a wild man who is roaming about through the woods. He first made his appearance about sixteen miles from this city a couple of weeks ago, and since that time he has been frightening the women in half the farm houses in the county. The fellow is clad as a March hare, and his mania seems to be of a violent kind. He thinks the telephone is sending him all over the country and that it orders him to kill and burn. He has made efforts to burn several barns and farm houses. The man is described as being about fifty years old, pale, thin, dressed and undressed, and created by exposure and hunger. He says his name is John McGuire.

Two dollars a day is offered, and fear some trouble will result from his being let run at large.

YELLOW FEVER.

British Ship Decried Detained at the Mouth of the Mississippi.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 13.—Sargant General Hamilton has advised Dr. Joseph Holt, President of the Board of Health, that he had been informed that the British ship Deerfield had arrived at the mouth of the river infected with yellow fever. The Deerfield stopped at Havana on her way to New York, and there one of the crew died with the disease. No other case has occurred on board. The Sargant General, however, ordered the ship to be stopped before entering the mouth of the river, and accordingly she remained anchored in the Gulf. Dr. Holt promptly informed the captain that the ship was to quarantine the ship would be detained at the station forty days and not permitted to discharge or take on cargo there. It is believed that the Deerfield will go into quarantine at St. John's Island.

Workmen's Convention.

UTICA, N. Y., Aug. 13.—When the Workmen's Convention was called to order the Committee on Permanent Organization reported. Chairman John R. Morris, of Utica, First Vice President, Joseph Delahanty, of Cohoes; Second Vice President, L. J. Green, of Rochester; Secretary, W. B. Moffitt, of Auburn, and John Phillips, of Brooklyn; Treasurer, John Coughlin, of Albany; Sergeant-at-Arms, T. D. Shetter.

Considerable discussion was had over the names of Mites for President. Utica delegates, with one exception, stood in favor of George Blair. But at length the officers were elected as recommended. The Committee on Resolutions made a report, which was adopted.

Killed by a Runaway Team.

MANASSAS, Md., Aug. 13.—Near Elwood this county, Thomas Holm and R. W. M. Hutton were fatally injured by a runaway team while buggy riding.

They were struck from behind and thrown with much force under the horse's head and wagon.

SHOOTING THE MORMONS

A Band of Four Church Elders Killed in Tennessee.

Shot Down by Masked Men During the Progress of a Revival Meeting—A Desperate Plot Effectually Executed.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 13.—An organization established by a Mormon Elder in Lewis and Hickman Counties, this State, about three years ago, was broken up on Sunday by the killing of all the elders by a band of masked men. Mr. Depriest, United States mail carrier between Ivy Mills and Centerville, Hickman County, gives the following account of the massacre:

Three elders were leading a meeting at Conder's farm, Cane Creek, Lewis County, Sunday morning, when twelve masked men on horseback rode up to the house and ordered a young man named Hutson and young Conder to surrender. They showed fight. One masked man knocked Conder down, breaking his skull. Hutson fired. One masked man, who fell dead, was found to be Dave Hinson, a citizen of Hickman County. He lived at Brush Fork, on Beaver Dam. The masked men then shot and killed two of the Mormon elders. The third elder ran toward the woods from which firing was soon heard. The elder has not been seen since and it is supposed that he was also killed.

It is since ascertained that the masked men, before going to Conder's house, stopped at the house of a man named Darr, near Conder's, and found another elder there. They left two masked men in charge of this elder. Shooting was heard there shortly afterwards, and that elder has not been seen since. When the firing commenced at Conder's house one elder hid behind Mrs. Conder, and in shooting at him Mrs. Conder was wounded.

GOT THE WORST OF IT.

Chinese Kicking Because They Had to Take Their Own Medicine.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—The Chinese Government has sent a protest to the Powers against the action of the French Admiral Leprieux in bombarding Keelung. According to French accounts the Chinese commenced hostilities by opening fire from a number of Krupp guns, whereupon Admiral Leprieux returned the fire and silenced the Chinese guns. Admiral Leprieux then ordered a force of marines to land and spike the guns, which was done under cover of fire from the fleet, after which the French retired. The French claim to have lost only one killed and two wounded.

Negro's Narrow Escape.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Aug. 13.—Last week some citizens of Dorsey County were a little too previous in their firing. In June a widow named Barnes lost $150. Olford Holway, a negro, was suspected, as he was seen with a good deal of money for his resources. A party of men disguised themselves and hung Holway by a rope to extort a full confession. He made no admission, further than that his life was in danger. Yesterday Olford went to trial and was acquitted.

Nearly Expedition Time.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 13.—The death rate for the past week was the lowest recorded since October of 1867. Despite the fact that the streets are very filthy. The Sanitary Association has notified the Mayor that they will legislate the streets into order, if allowed to use the city carts, which are now idle.
